

ULI Women's Leadership Initiative NSW Committee – Call for Nominations

Building on the success of the initial launch, the ULI Australia National Executive Committee is calling for nominations for the first NSW Women's Leadership Initiative Committee.

The Urban Land Institute (ULI) is a global non-profit global industry body, whose mission is to provide leadership in the responsible use of land and in creating and sustaining thriving communities worldwide. To achieve these objectives the ULI leverages its global expertise and networks to offer events for the purposes of sharing intelligence and wisdom on emerging global trends in urban development. With 35,000 members globally, the organisation reaches out to all stakeholders in urban development, and aims to represent a broad and inclusive demographic.

The Women's Leadership Initiative (WLI), aim is to raise the visibility and number of women leaders in ULI and the property industry. The ULI Women's Leadership Initiative's focus is to elevate the conversation around diversity and getting women into senior leadership roles in property.

Drawing on ULI successes internationally, we have begun this initiative here in Australia, and are navigating a path to 'change the conversation', to both celebrate leading women, and to advocate for a more diverse and inclusive workplace.

The Opportunity

Secure your seat at the table at the very beginning, to help us shape the WLI in Australia, and focus the conversation on leadership and career development. Join a like-minded group of future leaders, who are engaged in the property industry and looking for an opportunity to make a positive impact.

By joining the Committee, you will have ample opportunity to broaden your local leadership networks, enriched with access to global ULI property leaders. Support your own career development by building a strong support network within ULI, and gain experience in committee responsibilities in a highly visible global organisation.

The Commitment

The first WLI NSW Committee will be required to commit for 12 months in the start-up phase while we establish the WLI NSW Committee. The Committee will meet once monthly, with each member required to make allowances for 3 to 4 hours weekly to support to WLI programme of events.

Your Nomination

Please provide a current CV (no more than 2 pages) and a cover letter outlining why you would like to be involved in the WLI, and what your contribution will be (no more than 500 words). Include a letter of recommendation from your manager or senior sponsor.

Please email a PDF of your nomination to njames@investa.com.au before close of business July 31st.

For more information on the ULI and WLI' <http://asia.uli.org/> & <http://asia.uli.org/womens-leadership-initiative/>.

We look forward to hearing from you, and building a successful group of leading professionals to elevate the conversation around leadership, diversity and an inclusive workplace.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'Nina James', written in a cursive style.

Nina James
Chair, WLI Australia